

Champs Financial Policy

Airfare

When a team chooses for Champs International to arrange their airfare, all deposits are non refundable according to the airlines. Up until the time the final payment of the airfare, there is possibility for one or two names to be changed without penalty in the group at the decision of the airlines. Once the airfare is paid in full, and the traveler decides not to go, the traveler will not receive a refund according to the airlines. The traveler will receive a one year voucher from the airlines to use by the traveler.

In Country Funds

All trips are priced at the lowest possible cost. Once the traveler commits to going on a Champs Missions trip, all needs for the trip are arranged: lodging, meals, transportation, insurance, t-shirts, and Fun Day.

Champs International policy is that if a traveler cancel going on a Champs Missions trip two weeks before traveling to the country of their choice, there is no refund. If a traveler cancels their trip with Champs Missions earlier than two weeks before traveling, a refund will be considered by what has not been already purchased for their trip.

Example: The traveler cancels their trip 3 weeks before the date of travel, if the lodging, transportation, t shirts, insurance, meals, and Fun Day have not been purchased yet, then a portion of the in country cost maybe refunded.

Example: The traveler cancels two or one week before the date of travel, no refund will be granted.
